

Victoria Faith Miller

actor. activist. adventurer.

PRESS KIT

about me

Victoria Faith Miller is an emerging actor, model, singer, and triplet born on July 22, 2003, in Baltimore, MD. She began performing in school and community theatre at the age of 10, and to date, she has performed in 14 on-stage theatrical productions and has been featured in multiple regional commercials, modeling campaigns, short films, and a series pilot. In 2019, she appeared as the lead in the short film, "Delray Avenue." In 2021, she filmed a supporting role in the film, "Madison O." by Charm City Filmmakers as well as the lead role in a film titled, "The Last Zombie." In May of 2022, Victoria filmed a lead role in a post-apocalyptic series pilot titled "The Girl from the Ground" which is expected to be released at the end of 2022.

Baltimore Orioles Commercial

"Tales from the Vault" - Theatre

Mary's Designer Bridal Shoot

highlights

education

- Began vocal training at the age of 8, with a private instructor at the prestigious John's Hopkins Peabody Institute Conservatory
- At age 11, was accepted into exclusive after-school acting program through the Baltimore School for the Arts
- Studied with veteran Broadway and professional artists, culminating in multiple performances at the Hippodrome Theatre in downtown Baltimore
- Currently pursuing a Bachelor of Arts degree in Entrepreneurship & Innovation at Drexel University with a minor in Theatre (honors student with a 3.9 cumulative GPA)

impact & innovation

- In 2020, started an Instagram live series and community called Artists Alive (@artistaliveseries) to give artists a platform to connect and support each other
- In 2021, created a career collaborating business for actors called Approachable Actor (@approachableactor) to share tips and motivation for new and experienced actors
- In 2022, launched a micro-startup called This Girl Cares (@thisgirlcaresco), with a mission to combat gender inequality, creatively, by selling self-designed stickers, handmade self-care products and more

press & features

SHOUTOUT LA

INSPIRATION WITH TROY ALEXANDER

*click icons to view features

featured projects

"Survivalists"

Two families race against each other in a three-day trek across rugged terrain. They have to use their teamwork, communication and survival skills to prove that they are the ultimate Survivalists. (Watch here)

"The Girl from the Ground"

A woman wakes from a bunker 50 years after nuclear devastation, and is being hunted by her previous employer.

"The Last Zombie"

In her lonesome travels, the last zombie on a nearly desolate earth (Nova) comes across a house, where she meets and "befriends" a little girl named Lucy.

FOR COMPLETE RESUME & MORE PRODUCTION PHOTOS PLEASE VISIT:
HTTPS://WWW.VICTORIAFAITHMILLER.COM/RESUME